Shahu Maharaj Jayanti celebrations

NASHIK: Yesterday, Nashik honoured the birth anniversary of Chhatrapati Rajarshi Shahu Maharaj, celebrating his immense contributions as a social reformer. The city's academic and social institutions, NGOs, government offices, and political parties came together to pay rich tributes to Shahu Maharaj, reflecting on his enduring impact on society.

BJP Office: At the Bharatiya Janata Party's Vasant Smriti office, city president Prashant Jadhav, general secretary Kashinath Shiledar, and Sujata Karjagikar led the floral tributes to Chhatrapati Ra-jarshi Shahu Maharaj. They were joined by Arun Shendurnikar, Suresh Patil, Arif Kazi, Anita Bhamre, Sunil Lonari, Mahesh Bhamre, Akshat Ekhande, Atharva Pandhirkar, and Devendra Chumbhale.

Maratha High School: At Maratha High School on Gangapur Road, the birth anniversary of Rajarshi Shahu Maharaj was marked with reflections on his significant social reforms. Superintendent Rajendra Shelke spoke about Shahu Maharaj's efforts to pass public interest laws, bring justice to untouchables and weaker sections, and improve the state's financial condition. Vice Principal Rangnath Ugle, Shankar Kotwal, and Ramnath Rayate were present for the event. Shelke emphasized the importance of Shahu Maharaj's educational initiatives, particularly the establishment of a student hostel in Kolhapur. Art teachers Jagdish Dingu and Keshav Khatale contributed by creating a commemorative plaque, and the event saw the participation of all teachers and non-teaching staff.

MUHS: The Maharashtra University of Health Sciences (MUHS) celebrated the occasion with great enthusiasm. Vice-Chancellor Lt Gen (R) Madhuri Kanitkar, Pro Vice-Chancellor Dr. Milind Nikumbh, Controller of Examinations Dr. Sandeep Kadu, Finance and Accounts Officer NV Kalaskar, Director of Students' Welfare Department Dr. Devendra Patil, and PRO Dr. Swapnil Torane laid wreaths at the statue of Rajarshi Shahu Maharaj at MUHS campus. Deputy Registrar Dr. Sunil Phugare, Assistant Registrar Anant Sonawane, Col. Varun Mathur, YG Patil, Nitin Kale, Balasaheb Pendharkar, and Sandeep Tatar were also present to honor the occasion.

GURUKULACADEMY: Gurukul Academy English Medium School in Omkar Nagar, Nashik, commemorated Shahu Maharaj's birth anniversary on June 26, 2024. Coordinated by Nanda Thoke and chaired by headmistress Punam Shinde, the event focused on educating students about Shahu Maharaj's social and educational work, highlighting his deep respect and love for society. Teachers Komal Kulkarni, Jayashree Badgujar, Yogita Pathak, and Yamuna Bhoys shared stories of Shahu Maharaj's life and work. Students from classes 3rd and 4th delivered speeches honoring him.

MAHARASHTRA PREMIER LEAGUE

Satyajit shines as Best Bowler, wins Purple Cap

NASHIK: Nashik's own Satyajit Bachhav, a talented left-arm spinner and all-rounder, has emerged as the standout bowler in the Maharashtra Premier League (MPL), securing the prestigious Purple Cap for his exceptional performance. Representing the Ratnagiri Jets, Satyajit claimed an impressive total of 25 wickets throughout the tournament, earning him the Vasant Ranjane Purple Cap for the best bowler.

The Maharashtra Premier League was held at the renowned Maharashtra Cricket Association's international cricket ground in Pune, where teams competed fiercely for the title. Satyajit, playing under the captaincy of Azim Kazi for the Ratnagiri Jets, not only showcased his bowling prowess but also played a pivotal role in leading his team to victory.

His remarkable performance in the final match, where he took 4 wickets for 31 runs in 4 overs, was instrumental in the Ratnagiri Jets' triumph over the Eagle Nashik Titans. This performance earned him the Man of the Match title in the final, capping off a stellar tournament run.

Satyajit's excellence on the field is not a recent phenomenon. He has consistently demonstrated his cricketing skills over the years. In 2022, he was honored with the Maharashtra Cricket Association (MCA)'s Best Cricketer Award.

His exceptional abilities were also on full display during the 2018-19 Syed Mushtaq Ali T-20 tournament, where he emerged as the highest wicket-taker, significantly contributing to the Maharashtra team's journey to the finals and securing the runner-up position.

Recognizing his talent and potential, Mahendra Singh Dhoni's Chennai Super Kings (CSK) selected Satyajit for their team camp for the IPL 2022 season. Invited as a bowling specialist, Satyajit had the opportunity to train and hone his skills alongside some of the best players in the league.

Additionally, he demonstrated his leadership qualities by captaining Maharashtra in a few matches of the Mushtaq Ali T20 tournament in the last 2022 season.

Cycle rally against drug abuse

NASHIK: In observance of World Anti-Drug Day, the crime branch of the police commissionerate organised a cycle rally on Wednesday. The event aimed to raise awareness about the dangers of narcotics and promote a drug-free lifestyle.

The crime branch, which has been instrumental in confiscating MD drugs, gutkha, ganja, and other narcotics within Nashik's city limits, led the awareness campaign. The rally included interactions with students at HPT, KTHM, and Bytco College, where an oath to abstain from drugs was taken.

Key figures in the event included Commissioner of Police Sandeep Kamik, Deputy Commissioner of Crime Prashant Bachhav, Assistant Commissioner Sandeep Mitke, Assistant PI Hemant Nagre, and other officers and enforcers. Members of Nashik Cyclists also participated, contributing to the rally's success.

The rally commenced at 6:30 AM from the Police Commissionerate. The enthusiastic participation of police officers, employees, and cyclists created a vibrant and dynamic event.

Participants carried placards with messages such as 'Nasha Katl Karta Hai...' ('Drugs Kill'), 'Avoid Drug Abuse,' 'Drug-Free Nashik,' and 'Say No To Drugs.'

Adam Fabriwerk unveils dedicated testing centre

NASHIK: Adam Fabriwerk Pvt Ltd, a cornerstone of the Ambad Industrial Estate since 1982, has recently expanded its operations with the launch of an advanced dedicated testing centre at its Nashik premises.

The inauguration ceremony saw the presence of distinguished guests, including Dr. D.L. Karad, President of Nashik Workers' Union; Vikas Kumar, Regional Manager of Bank of Baroda; and Waman Wagh and Devidas Shirode, the company's founder directors.

Headquartered in Kandivali, Mumbai, Adam Fabriwerk specializes in providing customized process system solutions for the pharmaceutical and biopharmaceutical industries. Their extensive

The state-of-the-art manufacturing facility in Ambad, Nashik, spans over 235,000 square feet, making it the largest facility in its sector. This cutting-edge infrastructure has been pivotal during the COVID-19 pandemic, as Adam Fabriwerk collaborated with pharmaceutical companies to develop life-saving medicines. The company boasts a diverse international clientele, with customers in the USA, Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Bangladesh, Indonesia, and Thailand.

OLYMPIC DAY, OLYMPIC WEEK

Khashaba Jadhav Club, Shining Star triumph

NASHIK: On June 23rd, World Olympic Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm in Nashik. As part of the festivities, the Nashik District Multi Games Association, Yashwant Vyayamshala, and Kalika Mandir Sansthan organized an Olympic Week from June 23rd to June 30th.

A highlight of the week was a netball tournament for boys and girls aged 17 and under, held yesterday at Hedgegar Ground, Cidco. The tournament saw spirited participation from local teams.

Hemant Pande, president of the Nashik District Multi Games Association, inaugurated the competition. Notable attendees included Shiv Chhatrapati awardee Ashok Dudhare, president of Khashaba Jadhav Sports Club Tanaji Jaibhave, and dignitaries Damodar Mahale, Sanjay Patil, and Swapnil Karpe.

During his speech, Pande emphasized the allure of the Olympics and the dedication required to reach such a level. He expressed the Association's commitment to fostering talent by providing ample opportunities and facilities to young athletes.

Thirteen boys' teams and six girls' teams competed in the tournament. The host team, Khashaba Jadhav Sports Club, showed remarkable prowess throughout the event.

In the boys' final, Khashaba Jadhav

Sports Club clinched the title by defeating Lawrence School with a score of 14-09. St. Francis School, Tidke Colony, secured the third position.

The girls' final was a nail-biting affair, with Shining Star School, Mumbai-Agra Road, narrowly edging out St. Francis School by a single point, 09-08. Despite leading by three points (5-2) in the first half, St. Francis had to settle for second place. The Khashaba Jadhav Sports Club team finished third among the girls. All participants will receive a certificate of participation. According to tournament organizer Pawan Khode, the top three teams in both categories will be awarded attractive trophies and certificates of excellence during the combined closing ceremony on June 30th.

The tournament's success was made possible through the efforts of Kailas Shinnagan, Pawan Khode, Sarvesh Deshmukh, and Yuvraj Shelar. Referees Aniket Deshmukh, Rohit Bhamre, Rohit Jagtap, Dinesh Sonawane, Atharva Salunkhe, Rishikesh Davre, Akshay Pagare, and Swanand Deshmankar ensured fair play and smooth conduct of the matches.
